Press Conference: "April 25" also for Ukraine

Tomorrow at 12 am at Ukraine Media Center (8 Khmelnytskoho St.)

April 25 in Italy is a significant date. It is Liberation Day, the most important national day. It celebrates the Italian Resistance Movement to Nazi-Fascism during the Second World War. It is the symbol of the partisan struggle against the Fascist regime and the Nazi occupation. It is the anniversary that every year reaffirms the value of resistance to the oppressor.

This year, same as in the past year, Radicali Italiani intends to dedicate 25 April to Ukraine and to the strenuous struggle of the defenders of freedom and independence from the Russian invader.

Radicali Italiani believes that an "April 25" is also needed for Ukraine. Because the resistance of the Ukrainians today is the resistance of all Europeans to a literally terrorist and criminal regime, which wants to subvert the world order, and must be supported. In every possible way.

This is why Radicali Italiani is in Kyiv. To pay homage to the resistant Ukrainians, to support their struggle, to hope for a quick and definitive liberation.

The reasons for this initiative will be told in a press conference in Kyiv on Tuesday 25 April at 12 am (local Kyiv time – 11 am in Rome) at Ukraine Media Center (8 Khmelnytskoho St.), by the National Secretary of the Radicali Italiani, Massimiliano Iervolino, the Treasurer Giulia Crivellini and the President Igor Boni.
